PATTON, THIRD ARMY, SIEGFRIED LINE CAMPAIGN

War In Europe – Vol. 1

Over 90 min of rarely before seen interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII. This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs:

“Patton” - Bold and brash, General George S. Patton was a tactical genius who mastered the art of armored warfare. Perhaps no American field commander more greatly influenced the outcome of WW2 than General Patton. This film follows Patton’s mercurial career from the early days of WW1 thru his triumphant drive across France, the relief of Bastogne and the final battles inside Germany.

“Third Army” - Shortly after the Normandy Invasion the 3rd US Army came ashore and marched into the annals of history. General Patton forged the 3rd army into his own likeness: tough, disciplined and aggressive. The ultimate tribute was paid by the Germans when they said that the only army they ever feared was the one led by Patton.

“Siegfried Line Campaign” - By September of 1944 the Allied armies were streaming toward Germany and the Siegfried Line. Now a shell of its former self, it was designed to keep invading armies from entering the Reich. As the Allies approached, the Germans made do with what they had and in so doing bitterly contested every foot of ground and effectively slowed the Allied advance.

In addition, you get “Only a Few Returned,” a documentary short about the bombing campaign over Germany that resulted in enormous losses for Allied airmen. This short video takes you into the bomber as they go on a mission over Hitler’s Third Reich.
