War In The Pacific

Vol. 2

The National Combat History Archive is dedicated to the aggregation, preservation and dissemination of military combat and military related film, photographs and personal memoirs. The mission of the National Combat History Archive is to make this important history accessible to researchers, educators, students and historians so that the record of America's rich military heritage will be preserved for generations to come. Over 90 min of rare interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII! This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs: Macarthur "I Shall Return" - This history of General Douglas Macarthur from birth in 1880 to death in 1964, focuses on his WW II service in the Pacific and presents these events from the point of view of the Philippine people. The film briefly covers his rise through the Military, beginning with graduation from West Point first in his class, through WW I where he was awarded 16 medals, making him the most decorated soldier in that war. Also very briefly mentioned is his service after WW II, in Korea and elsewhere Westward is Bataan & Target Tokyo - The Army pictorial service produced a series of films to get the troops ready for the battle to come. This is one such production focused on Bataan. Giving a rare glimpse into how the combat troops in the Pacific were prepared for an upcoming campaign. This is a documentary movie about the first B-29 Superfortress and the first "Superfort" raid to Tokyo. Opens with aerial shot over Asian town, firefighters and burning buildings.
