

FROM THE NATIONAL COMBAT HISTORY ARCHIVES
RARE WWII FOOTAGE ON DVD

Air Warriors

Vol. 3

The National Combat History Archive is dedicated to the aggregation, preservation and dissemination of military combat and military related film, photographs and personal memoirs. The mission of the National Combat History Archive is to make this important history accessible to researchers, educators, students and historians so that the record of America's rich military heritage will be preserved for generations to come. Over 90 min of rare interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII! This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs: Gun Camera Europe 44 Vol. III - This is the next volume in the series of this first ever-assembled retrospective of 1944 gun camera footage. This volume also contains the first sequence of gun camera footage in color. The color films adds a distinctively new element that makes the viewer feel even more like they are back in the cockpit. Battle of Britain & Battle of London - In the dark days of WWII Goering's Luftwaffe ruled the skies over Europe. With his eyes fixed on the east, Hitler ordered the quick subjugation of Britain from the air with the intent of knocking her out of the war. Only Winston Churchill and a few bold pilots stood in the way yet another of a Nazi victory unlike a fictional Hollywood creation, this DVD is packed full of real events and of the real people who were there. If you want to feel what it was like to be under siege in London during the beginning of WWII then this is a must have DVD.
