

Air War: Pacific Vol. 1

Contains the films "Incendiary Attacks Against Japanese Cities," "Pacific Milk Run," "Story of the Black Cats" and more.

DESCRIPTION

Over 90 min of rarely before seen interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII. This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs: "Incendiary Attacks Against Japanese Cities"- This film documents the bombing campaign against Japan and details the tactics that were employed. Taking advantage of urban wood structures in Japan and its pre-war buildings, the US Air Force mounted one of the most destructive bombing campaigns in history. "Pacific Milk Run" - As the Americans pushed deeper into Japanese controlled territory, the bombers and fighters of the US Navy and Army Air Corp went on "Milk Runs" over the island chains of the Marshalls, Gilberts and Caroline Islands to interdict Japanese shipping and bomb the harbors and ports. "Japs Over China" - In the skies over China the Japanese Air Force reigned supreme. This short film shows an interesting array of Japanese aircraft as the air war for China begins." Story of the Black Cats" - The PBY was one of the most successful airplanes of WWII. "The Story of the Black Cats" tells how the PBY was modified to become a lethal killer of Japanese shipping. This DVD features rare footage of the Black Cats in action. Well done production. "Battle of Midway" - In remote part of the Pacific near Midway Island the mighty Japanese Imperial Navy was finally checked in one of the most dramatic naval battles in history. In a span of a few minutes the cream of Japan's vaunted aircraft carrier fleet would be devastated marking the beginning of the end for the Imperial Navy.
