

Air War: Super Fighters Vol. 2

Films include "Great War Birds of WWII," "Grumman at War," "Grumman at War" and "Air Force Tactical Firepower."

DESCRIPTION

Over 90 min of rarely before seen interviews, documentaries, war footage and more from private libraries of veterans from WWII. This action packed and stunning DVD contains the following programs: "Great War Birds of WWII" - The Mustang, Thunderbolt, Lightning and Warhawk were some of the greatest planes to fly in WWII. Flying in every theater of the war, they met and defeated the best the enemy could fly against them. This film details the role and exploits of these "Great War Birds" of the skies. "Grumman at War" - During WWII many productions were made by the defense industry to boost the morale of the workers. "Grumman at War" is the story of the F6F Hellcat using the plane as the narrator. This film focuses on the making of the Hellcat and is a treasure trove of rarely seen footage. "Air Force Tactical Firepower" - Overview of the United States Air Force and its evolution in aircraft and tactics from the early days of WWI through the early 1960's. Lots of gun camera and aerial bombing footage keeps the action lively as the Air Force follows its doctrine of delivering the greatest amount of firepower in the shortest period of time.
