

Malevolent Creation

Live At The Whisky A Go Go

1999 live recording from the world-famous Whiskey.

It was 1999, about 11 PM on a hot summer night in Los Angeles when Malevolent Creation arrived at the Whisky A Go Go. They took the stage at midnight and unleashed an abusive barrage of instrumental brutality highlighted by supersonic drumming and a bestial vocal roar that did not let up for more than an hour. This fury was murderously dispensed by the original line up: Bret Hoffman on vocals, Dave Culross on drums, Gordy Simms on bass and Phil Fasciana and Rob Barrett on guitars.
