

Flipper

Live Target Video 1980-81

Classic early '80s live shows of this massively influential band.

From the archives of SF's famous Target Video comes this monster release from the classic original early 80s line up of Flipper. Capturing extreme and scorching performances from 1980 and 1981, this DVD helps form a picture of the band that slowed down punk rock and made the kids suffer in the "louder faster" days of hardcore. An intense blend of noise, punk and drone music coupled with an in your face attitude and performance style made Flipper one of most "out there " bands of the early 80s scene. This DVD features stellar performances from Berkeley and the Kezar and is (mostly) unreleased and incredible snapshot into the other side of "American Hardcore."

"For those of us who never got to see the band live back in the day (and the lucky ones who did, for that matter), this video is something of a holy grail. It captures the attitude and the seat-the-of-the-pants brilliance that has endeared Flipper to so many fans over the years."
