

Lillian Axe Love And War

Lillian Axe formed in New Orleans and were one of the most underrated metal acts of the late 80s and early 90s. "Love and War" is their second album. "Love + War" contained ten classic compositions, stretching from hard and heavy tracks to mellow ballads. Produced by Tony Platt (who previously worked with AC/DC) the album delivered a strong dose of skillfully written material. Even though there was an official video for the song "Show a Little Love" played on MTV, the album never took off. This remastered reissue is in a numbered digipack edition of 2000.
