The New Seekers Live At The Royal Albert Hall

This DVD features a live concert at the Albert Hall recorded in 1972. It includes 13 tracks including favorites like "I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing", "Look What They Done To My Song Ma", "Georgie Girl", "Streets Of London", "Beautiful People" and many more. Highlights include Lyn Paul singing solo on "I'm a Nut" and sharing the lead vocals with Peter Doyle on "Beg Steal Or Borrow" and "When I Was Small". The New Seekers were an incredibly popular 1970's hit machine... This DVD is a perfect example of why.
