Osmond Brothers Country Rockers

This magnificent performance DVD was recorded live at The Church Street Station in Orlando (1984). Alan, Wayne, Merrill, and Jay Osmond decided to change their musical direction and sound when they started singing country music just two years before this recording. Their transition from pop to country music proved to be very successful. Billboard Magazine honored them with the 1982 Breakthrough Award and also acknowledged them as the "New Singles Group of the Year". The Country Music Association recognized them with a nomination for "Best New Group of the Year" as well. This DVD is a fine example of their extraordinary ability.
