

Bobby Collins

Mr. New York

Brilliant comedy release from the man the New York Times called "The most natural comedian working today."

With his smooth style and deep distinct New York accent, Bobby Collins wraps a proverbial arm around his audiences shoulder and brings them in as if they were old friends. His striking brand of emotional and physical humor focuses on monologues derived from the experiences of everyday life spotlighting family and friends, while usually ending with himself as the punchline. Check out the comic the New York Times called "The most natural comedian working today."
