

Waking the Witch

LIVE

Waking the Witch Live

Waking the Witch is a four piece band that is based in Yorkshire. The band who all sing and play guitar have over the last few years raised their profile through extensive touring and albums such as Hands and Bridges and their most recent critically acclaimed album Boys From the Abattoir. The DVD is the bands debut live DVD and also features a bonus interview with the band. With constant touring and recognition through their albums and features on radio the band have built a huge following the length and breadth of the UK that will want to add this DVD release to their collection.
