Jon Anderson

The Mother's Day Concert

In 1996 Jon Anderson and a group of musicians took to the stage in a beautiful Californian winery to perform a unique set of YES and Vangelis, and solo songs. Jons recollections of the show form the basis of his liner notes, and are accompanied by colour pictures. The show wasn't recorded officially, but thanks to hours of tireless investigative work, recordings were found in private hands. This recording has been re-mastered and the sound quality is the best example of this recording. The quality of this recording can be compared to FM broadcasts.
