"King Street Sounds/Nite Grooves proudly presents Yukihiro Fukutomi's latest full-length neo-jazztastic release "Love Each Other" which also happens to be the name of the album's first single. In March of 2002, when "Love Each Other" (with beautifully glorious vocals of Josh Milan) as a first single was released with "Play Back" on the flipside, it was instantly welcomed worldwide, showing up on club playlists and getting excellent foreign radio support. Supported by the likes of Nick Holder in Canada, DJ Deep of France and a #1 single on their influential French radio show "Deepsounds" with Fred Portet (Radio FG), Norway's Espen Wiik of Radio 1 made this a choice cut on his show as well as Deli G on his show on Galaxy FM in the UK. Let us not forget the massive support that came from Germany's own DJ Lars Behrenroth and Rainer Trüby, Kiko Navarro at Flaix Radio in Spain, of course right here to the three wise dj emperors last-named Kevorkian, Claussell and Krivot who make up the Body & Soul trio.

Other highlights on this album include "Play Back" with its jazzy piano keys, clacking snare-rimmed beats and flutey interludes weaving through a Bossa bass; the Jazztronik remix of "Play Back" is also on this album. Also, Dimitri from Paris, "from Rio to Paris mix" of "Brasilia 2000", which gives the perfect case in point of the increased global popularity of the Bossa/Samba beat and sung in both English and Portuguese. From the Disco Samba "HSG" tune to the "Day of Maracana" with its floaty soundscapes weaving through xylophonic bars under a groovy rubbery bassline and sunny jazzy overtones, there's a Bossa/Samba beat here for just about everyone."
