

KIP WINGER

FROM THE MOON TO THE SUN

The new album from the man behind Winger. Mature, epic, but still rocking and challenging listeners.

The general balance and atmosphere of 'From The Moon...' is very reminiscent of Kip Winger's previous solo albums. A highly textured, harmonious tapestry of sounds and influences from his own pop/rock sensibilities to Middle Eastern flavors as heard in the opening 'Every Story Told' with it's string surges and a lively Andy Timmons solo, to the instrumental 'Ghosts', conjuring up imagery of Ingmar Bergman movies and Prokofiev soundtracks. Whereas the massive 'Nothing' would fit neatly into the Winger IV album. Most songwriters dry up by the time they are 30, whereas Kip Winger continues to produce and compose so much high caliber music its uncanny. This latest epic is possibly his greatest effort so far.

"In his own word's 'I worked hard to make this record my best yet.' So there you have it, Kip Winger is not only a genius but a man of his word."
