

John Sebastian - Welcome Back

An intimate performance at the Maintenance Shop - Iowa State University (1987). Accompanied in part by David Bromberg.

DESCRIPTION

Recorded at the intimate Maintenance Shop at Iowa State University (1987), John Sebastian, accompanied in part by David Bromberg, performs not only his biggest hits but enralls the audience with tales of the origination of the songs that remain as popular today as when they first topped the charts. Sebastian has been a performer, composer and multi-instrumentalist for over thirty years rising to fame as leader of The Lovin' Spoonful and went onto appear solo at Woodstock & The Isle of Wight Festival, and has since featured on countless albums and tours with amongst others Willie Dixon, Mississippi John Hurt, Bonnie Raitt, Al Kooper, Tom Petty, Phoebe Snow, Les Paul, Graham Parker and The Doors. Between decades, Sebastian has released several solo albums; actively toured; wrote a best-selling children's book and wrote the theme song for a hit TV show "Welcome Back Kotter" which also welcomed him back on the charts with another international top 10 hit. Experience him live!
