"I Am Virgin" Review

Synopsis: It came without warning. The virus wiped out most of the world's population in just a few days, and everyone who survived became a vampire with an insatiable thirst for sex. Everyone except Robby. He's the last normal man in a world of unbridled sexuality, and he's a virgin. Accompanied by his trusty Basset Hound, Billy, he's looking for love in a city full of vampire vixens who want nothing more than the next depraved thrill. Faced with temptation, Robby must resist the lure of this world of lust and sensuality or risk becoming one of the sex-mad undead creatures himself!

Review: This film is exactly what i thought it would be, it's a spoof of the more recent version of "I Am Legend". I really thought I would hate this film as much as I hated the I Am Legend movie but, I surprisingly really enjoyed this one and as a spoof it is way better than anything the company asylum films could ever produce. There is a little CGI put into this film but it is mainly used to decorate the background and make it look like stuff had been destroyed. This film was shot pretty good and it has a good look as well. A majority of the cast in this film seems like they are actual porn stars or strippers except the main character played by Adam Davis. Now there is an awesome cameo by porn star legend Ron Jeremy which I found to be awesome because he is a funny guy and not that bad of an actor and always executes his lines well. Overall I found this film to be quite enjoyable and one of the best spoof films I have seen in quite some time. If you want a fun movie that you can actually have fun with I would highly suggest you check this film out!
