

The Boston Globe

Tuesday, September 11, 2007

insidekick

Music on DVD

GG ALLIN “Hated” Special Edition

It's debatable whether punk-rock nihilist G.G. Allin was a psychopath or an artist. In the documentary Hated (MVD Visual) he proclaims, “I am god and devil all in one.” Allin was so filled with hate that had he not channeled his powerful emotions into performance - which included attacking hecklers and defecating onstage - with his band, the Murder Junkies, he might've sat alongside mass murderer John Wayne Gacy, whom he visited in jail. Allin's saving grace was that he recognized his own evil and chose not to act on it outside of performance.

- Linda Laban