MUSIC: Jesus Lizard Comes To DVD

If you saw Jesus Lizard during its existence, you most likely got to see a lot more of frontman David Yow than you bargained for. Or maybe it was just enough. Yow had a penchant for getting naked, getting dirty and getting in your face, making most Jesus Lizard shows an interactive, bizarro soft-core porn.

DVD label MVD Visual has put together a collection of moving images so shocking and so out of line that someone may want to alert the authorities. Actually, it's just a Jesus Lizard live DVD showcasing Yow and company doing what they did best.

Jesus Lizard: Live captures the band in 1994, sonically tearing down the Venus de Milo in Boston and is worthy of your dollar if you never saw the Chicago outfit in person. The 65-minute disc also includes a handful of songs recorded live at CBGB two years prior to the Boston gig. Alright!

Jesus Lizard: Live will land in stores on June 5. Meanwhile, David Yow's newest project, Qui, turned some heads at SXSW this year. They'll be doing some more head turning at a couple of LA shows in the near future. Catch the three-piece at the Silverlake Lounge on April 23 and again at The Echo on May 18. You can check out three Qui songs on the band's MySpace page.

FUCK YES.

I saw this on 'another site'.

I can't wait.

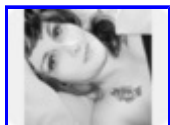

From the Jesus Lizard footage I've seen, this should have moment of our attention enthralled.

Not only is David Yow an unpredictable, dangerous, lewd, frontman, but exceptionally weird and unorthodox in a really badass way.

QUI is fucking awesome..

Check these guys out.

They also do a Jesus Lizard song.
