

The heat is on...and so is the hot selection of DVDs hitting stores this month!

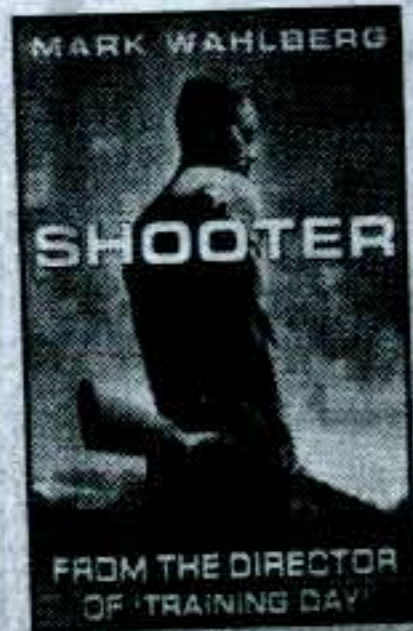

If you missed these blockbusters on the big screen, bring them home on DVD to enjoy in your own living room. Shooter (Paramount Home Video) features the mega-watt talent of Mark Wahlberg and Danny Glover in this assassination-based thriller. Black Snake Moan (Paramount) created quite a buzz and now you can bring deleted scenes and over 60 minutes of extras of Samuel L. Jackson, Christina Ricci and Justin Timberlake. Don't miss Primeval (Hollywood Pictures) including deleted scenes and a lovely CROC-umentary! Bridge to Terabithia (Disney DVD) started out as a young adult novel and this fantasy-adventure release does the book justice. It even has a music video of Anna-Sophia Robb for Keep Your Mind Open. Neverwas (Miramax) is the life affirming tale of a young man who finds out his childhood fantasy world does indeed exist, starring Aaron Eckhard, Brittany Murphy and Alan Cumming. Jason Ritter and Allison Janney star in Our Very Own (Miramax). Sweet Land (20th Century Fox) is a sweet and touching love story set in the 1920s.

Catch up on your favorite television shows like Pinky & The Brain Volume 3 Final Season (Warner Brothers) on 4 discs and Animaniacs Volume 3 (Warner Brothers) on 5 discs are both from the Stephen Spielberg Presents collection. Picket Fences Season 1 (20th Century Fox) on six discs takes you on a journey to visit friends from the past. The Girls Next Door Volume 2 (20th Century Fox) is on 6 discs of fun!

Music, music, and music...the newest music to hit DVD is plentiful in July. Catch T.G. Sheppard (MVD) with fantastic concert footage. Bruce Springsteen with the Sessions Band Live in Dublin (CMV) features 23 songs and can also be found on CD. Kenneth Keith Kallenbach American Icon (MVD) and The Original Country Joe Band Turned Up and Turned On (MVD) are fantastic additions to any collection. MVC's Waking Up Dead is a fascinating documentary. For four years, journalist and filmmaker Fabio Jafet documented the seedy underworld of music through friend Phil Varone's eyes (of Saigon Kick and Skid Row fame). An accompanying CD is also available. Johnny Cash The Man His World His Music (Cherry Red Films) and New Model Army Live 161203 (MVD) are also new. Greg Lake Welcome Backstage (MVD) is a wonderful look at founding member and voice of King Crimson and Emerson, Lake and Palmer. Last, but by no means least, is Echo & the Bunnymen Dancing Horses (MVD) features exclusive interview with Ian McCulloch and Will Sergeant.

For the whole family, High School Musical The Concert Extreme Access Pass (Disney DVD) is available. Hannah Montana Pop Star Profile (Disney DVD) and The Many Adventures of Winnie the Pooh The Friendship Edition (Disney DVD) are great for kids of all ages!
