

BLESSED DEATH/Destined For Extinction (Metal Mind Productions) Oh holy hell is this an incredible release of pure speed/thrash metal with some of the greatest vocals ever. This band put out 3 classic albums and this is the middle one. I have seen them at Lamour's live many times and they always delivered the goods and on this they do it again. Just pure ripping speed metal with pure thrash vocals and those screams are out of this world. If your neck doesn't break while listening to this, something is wrong. This release is full of power, passion, emotion and just feeling that is lacking from a lot of today's bands. Buy this and feel the pain. Info:
