- 2 The Evil Dead

Group of college aged friends head out to woods for a little spring break fun, but run into a monster that is able to cause them to hallucinate through the use of sound waves and trick them into believing that it is friends of theirs.

Almost immediately the film dives right into being a gory slasher. No character development, no buildup, no suspense what so ever. Tries to be energetic and fun, but comes across as flat and lifeless. The film gets better as it goes
