If you don't stand for something you might as well not stand at all.

Being a Prog Rock fan from way back, when I mentioned these guys mentioned Moog Synth, I was in! No, my ear tells me it is a Mini Moog, rather than the mad scientist weapon preferred by Keith Emerson and Rick Wakeman, but a Moog is a Moog.

Lefty political Oblivion Sun from a progressive, patriotic American cause. Please visit this BNN sponsor

I love prog rock when it is the real thing, and these guys are the real thing.

Oblivion Sun has Happy The Man stalwarts Frank Wyatt (Keyboards and Sax) and Stanley Whitaker (Guitar and Sax) at the helm. They are also joined by Chris Mack (Drums), Dave DeMarco (Bass) and Bill Plummer (Keyboards). Actually Bill gets double billing, he also did a lot of the engineering and production on this CD. Which incidentally is very well engineered.

What I found interesting with Oblivion Sun are the writing credits, most bands have one or maybe two contributors but everyone has a turn. Even better they all seem to be on the same page. There is a great continuity in the compositions and overall style.

Oblivion Sun is well worth the effort of tracking down. You can get your copy from MVD.
