COMMENTS & REVIEWS

Marc	Published on: 5 Oct 2007 Oblivion Sun is a new band featuring two "old" founding members of Happy The Man : Stan Whitaker and Frank Wyatt. The info I read on the album is that they have moved away from the music they are well known (and loved) for. Bands like King's X, Spock's Beard, King Crimson... are mentioned as references. I don't agree. True, there are some heavier tracks on Oblivion Sun than what Happy The Man usually put out (but even HTM could rock it pretty much when they felt like it). In fact, after a few spins of the album, I found everything I liked about Happy The Man still present... ambient/new age leanings, looping keyboards and sax, crunchy guitar playing, lightning fast keyboard solos and Stan Whitaker's moving singing voice (more seasoned than before) on a couple (too few) of songs. Oblivion Sun is a move forward for these talented musicians, but it is in line with what can be expected from them and, in my opinion, this is a good thing. "A rose by any other name..." Highly recommended!!
