

The Vindicator

Living Colour “CBGB OMFUG Masters: Aug. 19, 2005 The Bowery Collection” CD (MVD Audio)

Living Colour fans will feel old with the realization that it's been 20 years since the funk-punk-rock act released its debut album, “Vivid.” Corey Glover, Vernon Reid and company are celebrating the anniversary with a career-spanning concert CD “CBGB OMFUG Masters: Aug. 19, 2005 The Bowery Collection.” Though the band tears up its definitive track “Cult of Personality,” other standout tracks include a playful “Glamour Boys” and the highly underrated “Open Letter to a Landlord.” Sure, the band didn't enjoy much longevity, but if you're a fan of “Vivid,” this 12-track concert doesn't disappoint.

- John Benson