SAME GREAT TASTE LESS FILLER

WELCOME

Welcome to Pivotal Rage LITE! Same great taste, less filler. This new version 3.0 is a step back to the basics which we feel is the core of what we have to offer to the heavy music community as well as a touch of the new such as the Podcasts in order to evolve with the times. Gone are all the sections which we did not have the manpower and time to keep fully updated. We've instead decided to focus solely on reviews, and interviews in order for us to bring you the best material we have to offer. If you're looking for news, tour dates, intensive and not-so-up-to-date band bios, you'll simply have to look elsewhere as many websites have dedicated their efforts to these things.

If you're looking for the latest reviews, interviews, and radio shows ranging from well known heavy outfits as well as the underground artists with cult followings, then you've come to the right place!
