MVD Visual Announces Echo And The Bunnymen, New Model Army DVDs - April 30, 2007

MVD Visual has announced the upcoming release of Echo & The Bunnymen's "Dancinghorses" DVD and New Model Army's "Live 161203" DVD.

Echo & The Bunnymen's "Dancinghorses" performance was filmed & recorded at The Shepherds Bush Empire (UK) in 2005. It includes an incredible 20-song set as well as an exclusive interview with Ian McCulloch & Will Sergeant. Echo & the Bunnymen's melancholy post-punk and psychedelic rock brought the group a slew of hits in the UK circa early '80s. In the US, the band attracted a significant cult following after their self-titled release in 1987. Through the past 25+ years, the band has undergone a number of lineup changes, breakups, and reformations, but in 2007 they re-signed to their original record label. This DVD is outstanding proof of their song writing ability, musicianship, and stage presence.

New Model Army's "Live 161203" performance was filmed & recorded at The Astoria in London on December 16th 2003. It's an eight camera shoot that boasts 21 tracks and exclusive interviews. Named after the English revolutionary army of Oliver Cromwell, New Model Army is led by guitarist / vocalist, Justin Sullivan. The band is widely known for their unwavering commitment to their original vision of music and performance and their ethical code. Over the years, they have gained an extremely loyal, global, multi-generational cult following referred to as The Family. This high quality DVD brilliantly captures their dedication to their art and to their fans.

Both DVDs are set for a June 26th release date.
