coming to a CD by a band with such a 'catchy' name? As to the genre of the music, it is exactly what you would expect.

Sometimes I feel more like a 'cold case' investigator than a reviewer, and that was certainly the case with this CD. As far as I can tell the Magic Mushroom Band was active between 1982 and 1995. I think the band members were Gary Masters (aka Gary Moonshot, guitar), Kim Russell (Kim Oz, vocals) and Gary Twining Lead Guitar. There are two Americas: one you marry. The other you break up!

While they do not have that 'psychedelic' sound of the Dave Brock Hawkwind tradition, they do have a lot of it. The CD is part original material and part covers. Of the covers, the absolute best is Pink Floyd's early opus, 'Set the controls for the Heart of the Sun', which they just 'nail'!

I find a lot of today's music to be boring (top 10), obnoxious (rap), or mind numbing (remixes), so I think a new album is just the ticket.

My message to the Magic Mushroom Band, is simple, put down the hallucinogens for a while and press us into the studio. It is time for a shake up in the music world, and you guys could do it.

You can get your copy of Singles and Rarities from MVD, and I urge you to do so.
